

Curso: C2 Proficiency

Preparación para el examen internacional de nivel C2 de inglés.

Equipo docente: Lic. Claudia Hernández.

Unidad académica: Centro de Idiomas.

Referentes académicos: Mag. Patricia Carabelli.

Dirigido a: público general interesado.

Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE):

Cambridge English: Proficiency is targeted at Level C2 on the CEFR and provides universities and employers with detailed evidence that successful candidates are able to use English at near-native levels in a wide range of situations. Achieving a certificate at this level proves that a candidate has reached a highly advanced level of English required in a wide range of academic and professional settings.

Course Aims

The course focuses on developing all four language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking – and on students’ understanding of the structure of the language.

CPE Exam Content: an Overview

Paper 1: Reading and Use of English (Timing: 1 hour 30 minutes)

Content:

- Part 1: multiple-choice cloze – a single text with eight gaps, with a set of four words or phrases to fill each gap
- Part 2: open cloze – a modified cloze test consisting of a text with eight gaps
- Part 3: word formation – a text containing eight gaps, each of them corresponding to a word (stem) that must be changed to form the missing word
- Part 4: key word transformations – six discrete items with a lead-in sentence and a gapped response to complete in 3-8 words including a given ‘key’ word

- Part 5: multiple choice – a text followed by six 4-option multiple-choice questions
- Part 6: gapped text – a text from which seven paragraphs have been removed and placed in jumbled order after the text
- Part 7: multiple matching – a text, or several short texts, preceded by ten multiple-matching questions

Test focus: Assessment of candidates' ability to demonstrate knowledge and control of the language system by completing various tasks at text and sentence level; assessment of candidates' ability to understand the meaning of written English at word, phrase, sentence, paragraph and whole text level.

Paper 2: Writing (Timing: 1 hour 30 minutes)

Content:

- Part 1: compulsory essay question (question 1) – 240-280 words
- Part 2: candidates answer one from a choice of four questions (including the set book option, question 5) – 280-320 words

Test focus: Assessment of candidates' ability to write specified text types with a range of functions.

Paper 3: Listening (Timing: 40 minutes (approx.))

Content:

- Part 1: three-option multiple choice - three short unrelated texts lasting approximately 1 minute each, consisting of either monologues or exchanges between interacting speakers, with two 3-option multiple-choice questions each.
- Part 2: sentence completion – a monologue lasting 3 to 4 minutes, with a summarised written text with nine gaps to fill in with a word or short phrase.
- Part 3: four-option multiple choice – a text involving interacting speakers lasting 3 to 4 minutes, with five 4-option multiple-choice questions.
- Part 4: multiple matching – five short themed monologues of approximately 35 seconds each, with two multiple-matching tasks, each requiring selection of the five correct options from a list of eight.

Test focus: Assessment of candidates' ability to understand the meaning of spoken English, to extract information from a text and to understand speakers' attitudes and opinions.

Paper 4: Speaking (Timing: 16 minutes)

Content:

- Part 1: conversation between the interlocutor and each candidate with a focus on general interaction and social language - 2 minutes.
- Part 2: two-way conversation between the candidates – candidates are given instructions with written and visual stimuli, which are used in decision-making – focus on sustaining an interaction; exchanging ideas, expressing and justifying opinions, agreeing and/or disagreeing, suggesting, speculating, evaluating, reaching a decision through negotiating - 4 minutes.
- Part 3: individual long turns and follow-up discussion on topics related to the long turns – candidates are given a written question to respond to; interlocutor leads a discussion to explore further the topics of the long turns – focus on organising a larger unit of discourse, expressing and justifying opinions, developing topics - 10 minutes.

Test focus: Assessment of candidates' ability to produce spoken English using a range of functions in a variety of tasks.
